INVITATION

NEXT GENERATION ENTREPRENEURSHIP EVENING

WEDNESDAY, 14 MARCH 2018

Ewgeni Smuschkovich, Market Head RCEE Europe at Bank Julius Baer & Co. Ltd., in collaboration with Olga Vysokova and Daria Ratobylskaya are pleased to invite you to the Next Generation Entrepreneurship Forum.

The Next Generation Forum is a networking event that brings together enthusiastic young men and women from Russian speaking backgrounds to share, learn and help each other to set up companies, launch careers, take the reins of the family business, manage inherited wealth and make a positive impact on society.

We believe that to begin and to grow a successful career or business, a strong support network is just as important as qualifications and knowledge. Next Generation are the children of the entrepreneurs and business leaders, who face the unique challenge of finding their own path to success.

Events include regular networking and social events, debates, and discussions where young people can share their ideas and projects, forge friendships and help and support each other. Talks and presentations held in partnership with various experts will cover practical topics such as investments and philanthropy. At other sessions, inspiring entrepreneurs and business leaders are invited to share their experience and offer advice to our members.

The evening will consist of presentations from Next Generation Businesses and a networking reception.

We look forward to seeing you there.
